

PROGRAM FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 28

07.00 BREAKFAST – at the restaurant in the main building

IT IS WRITTEN IN THE GENES – GENETIC CAUSES OF AF

Moderator: Ingrid E. Christophersen

08.15 Three Decades of Research on the Genetics of Atrial Fibrillation

Patrick T. Ellinor – Massachusetts General Hospital, The Broad Institute of MIT and Harvard, Harvard Medical School, Boston, USA

09.15 Of Giants and Gods – The role of Titin in atrial fibrillation

Morten S. Olesen – Laboratory of Molecular Cardiology, Copenhagen University Hospital, Rigshospitalet & Copenhagen University, Copenhagen, Denmark

09.45 Break – Refreshments in the lounge

ANIMAL KINGDOM – FUNCTIONAL CHARACTERIZATION IN ANIMAL MODELS

Moderators: Patrick T. Ellinor & Knut Gjesdal

10.15 From the Aquarium – Zebrafish models

Pia R. Lundegaard – Laboratory of Molecular Cardiology, Copenhagen University Hospital, Rigshospitalet & Copenhagen University, Copenhagen, Denmark

10.45 From the Stables – Horse models

Eva Zander Hesselkilde - The Equine Cardiac Group, University of Copenhagen, Copenhagen, Denmark

11.15 Break – Refreshments in the lounge

WHAT CAN WE LEARN FROM OUR NEIGHBOURS? SWEDISH AF RESEARCH VOL. II

Moderator: Harald Kjekshus

11.30 Electrocardiography in atrial fibrillation

Pyotr Platonov – Lund University Hospital & Lund University, Lund, Sweden

CLOSING REMARKS

12.15 Arnljot Tveit & Ingrid E. Christophersen

END OF SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

12.30 LUNCH

13.30 THE LOUNGE IS AVAILABLE FOR INDIVIDUAL NETWORKING MEETINGS UNTIL 18.00 CET